

Incident Response Policy

The organization shall maintain an incident response process.

The security team coordinates incident management activities.

Lessons learned may be documented after major incidents.